

We are supposed to be living in a democratic society where the media does not take sides and is non biased in its reporting. When this is not the case, a broadcaster should be penalized and usually, fines are a very good way of getting the right response. Sinclair deserves punitive action if they air the anti Kerry piece.